

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion at St John's

- We want students and staff to feel happy and safe in themselves – to be treated equally.
- We want students and staff to understand and respect diversity – to treat others equally.
- We want students and staff to know what to do when they or those around them experience prejudice – to strive for equality.