

Choose your own challenge

I was given some tools for my birthday last month and have enjoyed getting the chance to use them on my Easter project. I decided to make a bird box for our garden. I used bits of off cut wood I found in my Dad's shed.

The bird box is up on the end of our garden shed, I like the detail of the roof and the perch outside the entrance, it was made from a bit of twisted branch sanded down.

