

Apprenticeship Links for years 12-13

Sixth Form interactive apprenticeship guide - self-directed learning activities for years 12-13 to support distance learning and development. The guide provides information about apprenticeships and encourages learners to research and apply for apprenticeship opportunities <https://assets.ctfassets.net/8kbr1n52z8s2/3RuurURKWQF5eH7Qt0V1JG/6840146a5f2dea02b558d334069e9d0c/PDF-sixth-form-student-apprenticeship-activity-pack.pdf>

GOV.UK Information and vacancies <https://www.gov.uk/apply-apprenticeship> Register for updates.

The screenshot shows a webpage titled "How do you find them?". It features a list of search methods on the left and a search form on the right. The list includes:

- National Apprenticeship site <https://www.findapprenticeship.service.gov.uk/apprenticeshipsearch>
- Your own contacts
- Employers & career websites
- Training providers / colleges

The search form on the right is titled "Find an apprenticeship" and includes fields for "Search", "Apprenticeship level", "Your location", "Within", "Apprenticeship level", and "Only show Disability Confident". A blue arrow points from the "National Apprenticeship site" link to the search form.

The Apprenticeship Guide <http://www.apprenticeshipguide.co.uk/> is also a book in the library/careers office and has latest updates on our blog It provides up to date information on the range of apprenticeships, helpful resources as well as vacancies and employer news.

UCAS is also a very good site for apprenticeships

<https://www.notgoingtouni.co.uk/>

<https://www.studentapprenticeships.co.uk/>

<https://www.getmyfirstjob.co.uk/>

Job sites also advertise apprenticeships e.g. <https://www.indeed.co.uk/Apprenticeships-jobs>

<https://www.totaljobs.com/jobs/apprenticeship> &

<https://www.reed.co.uk/jobs/apprenticeships-jobs>

NOT all apprenticeships are on the vacancy sites – check the careers/jobs section of company websites, the training providers such as independent training providers or universities, ask your own contacts.

Always check individual company websites or sector specific e.g. NHS
