Apprenticeship Links for years 12-13

- GOV.UK Information and live vacancies https://www.gov.uk/apply-apprenticeship
- UCAS is also a very good site for apprenticeships Degree apprenticeships - Learn more here and https://www.ucas.com/apprenticeships/apprenticeships-england

Register for both sites to receive updates and new vacancies related to your interests.

The Apprenticeship Guide http://www.apprenticeshipguide.co.uk/ outlines all the different apprenticeships available linked to categories/sectors/subjects and there is also a book version in the sixth form library & careers office. It provides up to date information on the range of apprenticeships, helpful resources as well as vacancies and employer news.

Employer Sites: Large employers and universities often bypass central job boards and handle registrations internally. For example, you can directly register your interest or view upcoming 2027 schemes on the Bank of England Apprenticeships. Check the careers section of company websites.

Amazing apprenticeships https://amazingapprenticeships.com/apprenticeships/ - includes employer profiles and the three times updated list through the year of large company programmes https://www.amazingapprenticeships.com/higher-degree-listing/

Higherin: Student Jobs, Career Advice and Reviews includes lots of useful information including apprentice reviews and top 100 apprenticeship employers.

Other sites for vacancies include:-

- https://www.notgoingtouni.co.uk/
- https://www.getmyfirstjob.co.uk/
- https://www.allaboutschoolleavers.co.uk/ - Law and Business

The training providers such as independent training providers e.g. http://www.whitehorsetrainingltd.co.uk/ and Apprenticeship Vacancies - Activate Apprenticeships or universities e.g. Higher and degree apprenticeships - University of Gloucestershire can be useful resources and may be able to advise on employers they are linked with them. Colleges also offer some higher & degree apprenticeships e.g. Degree & Higher Level Apprenticeships - New College Swindon

Ask your own contacts. Networking is invaluable – learn about different employers and organisations and check their website career information. Small companies may be open to starting an apprenticeship programme if you are already known to them. Online social media and job channels e.g. LinkedIn enable you to research and follow companies.
